

UNIVERSITY OF FLORIDA

IFAS EXTENSION

4-H'ers recognized for achievements

The 2005 Santa Rosa County 4-H Awards Banquet was held Thursday, December 15th, at the Santa Rosa County Extension Office. This banquet is held annually to recognize outstanding 4-H members, volunteers, and supporters.

Youth who received Junior Project Achievement Awards were: Caleb Connell, Christy Connell, Shanna Dales, Jacquelin Grosjean, Parker Hudson, Maggie Lavamoniere, Kaitlyn Pace, Katie Rebel, Shannon Rebel, Micaela Sessions, Brandon Shultz, Jeramiah Shultz, and R.W. Stephens. Senior Project Achievement Awards went to: Rachel Bardin, Kiley Debien, Asa Furman, Lucas Furman, Kaitlin Hudson, Keaton Lindsay, Jackson Mullins, Randi Nall, Garrett Pace, and Lauren Pace.

Outstanding 4-H members were:

Senior 4-H Portfolio/Record Book of the Year- Kaitlin Hudson

Junior 4-H Record Book of the Year- Kaitlyn Pace

Senior 4-H'er of the Year- Asa Furman

Junior 4-H'er of the Year- Christy Connell

During the Awards banquet many others were recognized for their support of the Santa Rosa County 4-H Program. Community members and groups who have made a difference in the 4-H program and were presented "Friend of 4-H" certificates were: Cindy Greenwell Family Readiness Coordinator representing the 842 Army Reserve Unit; Santa Rosa County HCE Council, Skyliners HCE Club; Ralph Nesenson representing the Santa Rosa County Veterans Memorial Plaza; Lewis Runge Pace High School ROTC; Santa Rosa County Fair; and the Santa Rosa County Master Gardeners.

Congratulations to all of the 4-H members, leaders and supporters.

If you are interested in assisting with the 4-H program or have questions, please contact Vickie B. Mullins, Santa Rosa County 4-H Coordinator, at 623-3868.

4-H programs and activities are open to boys and girls ages 5 to 18 regardless of race, color, creed, religion, national origin, sex or handicap.